Welcome to the July edition of Artitude

We are delighted to advise that our landline telephone has finally be reinstated and that you can now contact us on 9758 7316 once again.

As of the 1st July we are offering a 'half price' Arts Hub Membership fee which is valid until the 31 December. While we don't have cinema, we still have a number of fantastic shows coming up for the rest of this year. But more importantly, your membership is helping to support us during this difficult time while our venue undergoes redevelopment so please sign up if you haven't already.

Our Volunteer Hub Committee have been very busy organising a fun Car Rally which takes place on Sunday 29 July. There are some fantastic prizes to be won so get a team together for a great day out. We have three great shows coming up in August and September, see the details below and save the dates.

Once again here are some of the latest aerial photographs of the redevelopment - its coming along in leaps and bounds!

We hope to see you soon,

COCKFIGHT

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER

A dangerously comic physical performance

Two blokes in an office: one older, one younger. A cross between The Office and a cage fight, Cockfight is a game of comical one-upmanship that builds to moments of emotive impact, where generational truths are exposed and unpacked. A flash of bared teeth, territorial pissing contests, the desperation of needing to prove yourself versus the need to hold on to what you've got. Cockfight explores the power play between men, the frailty of the ageing body and questions our culture's desperate struggle for achievement.

"Cockfight is a darkly comedic work that confronts the mindless violence associated with intergenerational male rivalry." – The Australian

Tickets on sale mid July. More information in the next Artitude.
