

Welcome to the August edition of Artitude

Don't miss our 'Rally around the Region' car rally this Sunday 29 July. Registrations close at noon tomorrow and there are heaps of fantastic prizes to be won. Teams are to meet at the TAFE carpark at 9am on Sunday for registrations and should be at the finish line by 3pm. A huge thanks to all the local businesses that have generously donated the many wonderful prizes.

There are limited tables left for the Paris Underground Dinner and Show at Xanadu. Get in quick if you want to book for the dinner which commences at 6.30pm. Tables of up to 6 people can be accommodated, with diners having premium seating.

Coming up in September we have The Orchid and The Crow, a live comedy theatre show reflecting on the actor's real-life experience of surviving testicular cancer. Arts Margaret River will be donating $5 from every ticket sold to local cancer support charity, River Angels.

COCKFIGHT

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER

A dangerously comic physical performance

Two blokes in an office: one older, one younger. A cross between The Office and a cage fight, Cockfight is a game of comical one-upmanship that builds to moments of emotive impact, where generational truths are exposed and unpacked. A flash of bared teeth, territorial pissing contests, the desperation of needing to prove yourself versus the need to hold on to what you've got. Cockfight explores the power play between men, the frailty of the ageing body and questions our culture's desperate struggle for achievement.

"Cockfight is a darkly comedic work that confronts the mindless violence associated with intergenerational male rivalry." – The Australian

Raked seating will be installed in the exercise room for this performance.

Tickets on sale 1 August.
